

It is my understanding that you are considering limiting the use of FM translators with the expansion of LPFM stations. I am simply writing to voice my displeasure with this possibility. My two favorite radio stations are brought to me via an FM translator here in Cincinnati. The quality of local radio is poor, without these two translator stations I would not listen to radio. So please when you consider further introduction of LPFM, don't take away my Translator stations.